Standard Procedures

- Team members will maintain open communication through Discord.
- Responsibilities and assigned tasks will be clearly defined.
- Team members will communicate when they are blocked, need assistance, or expect a delay.
- Changes affecting shared work should be communicated to the team.
- Complete work ahead of deadlines

Guiding Principles

- All team members will actively participate and contribute to the project.
- Team members will provide frequent updates regarding their assigned work.
- Questions, concerns, and potential problems should be communicated early.

Issues & Resolutions “Bad news should be shared often and loudly; good news can be shared quietly and once.”

- Non-responsive team member: Attempt contact through multiple available channels and maintain shared contact information for all members.
- Missed meetings: Team members should provide at least 24 hours' notice when possible and review recordings of missed meetings.
- Failure to ask for help: Encourage open and honest communication, team members will check in on other members when they can.
- Procrastination: Internal deadlines will be set before the official deadline so the team has time to review and make changes.
